9.45am and 3pm
All welcome

Dear Friends,

Radical Action

If you possess a smartphone, tablet or computer, then you are probably, already, very familiar with the worldwide web. Hopefully, that also means that you are a regular visitor to the website of the Church of Scotland; easily found through any decent search engine. It is well worth dropping in every two or three days as there is an ever-changing news section which keeps you up to date with events national and local as well as sharing heartening stories of the wide-ranging life and work of the Kirk around the country and beyond.

One recent and important headline relates to the appointment, by Her Majesty the Queen, of Prince William, as the next Lord High Commissioner of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland. The Lord High Commissioner represents the Queen and, during Assembly Week (May 16th – 22nd), will not only attend some sessions of the Assembly but will also make visits to various congregations and projects, as well as hosting formal occasions. Through the website you will also be able to “live stream” every session of the General Assembly. There is an AV feed as well as a simple audio feed, enabling everyone to tune in to the debates, worship and speeches; including that of Prince William.

Assembly 2019 was a momentous occasion, when a Radical Action Plan for the Church of Scotland was given strong approval. One consequence of this is that the number of Presbyteries (currently 49) is going to be reduced to around 12 or less. At the same time many powers (and attendant responsibilities) currently exercised centrally, will be devolved. Our own Lothian Presbytery will become part of a very much bigger Presbytery, and that will have inevitable consequences.

But the changes extend further. The General Assembly has always had several constituent Boards or Committees which, (under Assembly authority and control) take responsibility at a national and international level for discrete areas of the life and work of the Kirk. Since 1 January 2020 most of these have been disbanded. A Chief Officer has been appointed (Dave Kendall) and two new Forums have been established. They, in turn, have working groups undertaking research and review in specific areas with a view to establishing a mission-centred future for the Kirk.

All of this, of course sits alongside the radical planning already being demanded of each Presbytery regarding the future provision of ministry within each Presbytery area. Every Presbytery is required to share in the cuts to the number of Ministers of Word and Sacrament and to recognise the need to deploy this shrinking resource in the best interests of mission. This is particularly relevant in our own Presbytery which covers Midlothian and East Lothian. The number of new houses being built in this Presbytery exceeds that in any other part of Scotland and the Church is already appointing Pioneer Ministers to try to develop new congregations in areas with huge population increases. This will inevitably mean that more existing congregations will have to share a Minister.

These are challenging times for the Kirk, but challenge also brings opportunity. We have a resurrection faith, at the heart of which is the conviction that no matter what “externals” may change, God is constant and unwavering in love for all creation. There can seldom have been a better time in modern history for God’s people to demonstrate our faith in God by embracing change and adapting our own expectations and demands in the interests of the greater need. How desperately the world needs examples of such faith and selfless dedication. Please pray for our leaders, nationally and more locally; but please also pray for yourself that God will give you the grace and the courage to respond boldly and positively to the challenges before us; ever secure in the knowledge that God is greater than anything we can ever ask or conceive.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
Brian

Gullane Kirk Session: Welcomes and Farewells

We enjoyed a very happy morning service at Gullane on 19 January 2020, when eight new elders were ordained and admitted to membership of Gullane Kirk Session; three of whom were also Confirmed in their membership of the Church. Anne Dobie; Douglas Donaldson; Jim Donaldson; Joy Grey; Joan Logan; Hilary Smyth; Peter Smyth and Tracey Thomson will each bring gifts, talents and experience to the Kirk Session and you are encouraged to pray for them and all of our elders as the Kirk Session leads us forward. We welcome them warmly to this new role and offer our sincere congratulations upon their ordination.

Five elders have decided to step down from membership of the Kirk Session and the congregation; Keith and Janet Anderson, Keith and Sheila Cornwell and Frank Gerstenberg. Keith and Sheila Cornwell have lived in Dirleton for some years and they will now attend Dirleton Parish Church. Frank Gerstenberg (with his wife Val) have for some time spent most of the year in Dornoch and they are now moving to membership of Dornoch Cathedral. We extend our sincere thanks to all the above for their hard work and for the friendship and fellowship shared with them; wishing them health and happiness in the future.

SUNDAY THIRTY

A short, informal All Age Service led by the Aberlady Worship Team in Aberlady Kirk Stables at 8.45am on the third Sunday of each month, followed by coffee/tea, a chat and something to eat.

Dates for your diary are:

16 February, 15 March, No Sunday Thirty in April,
17 May, 21 June
All are welcome.

Sunday Club

It's great to be back at Sunday Club after what feels like a long Christmas break. Last term we enjoyed 2 craft afternoons, the first in October with an Eco theme, then our annual Christmas Craft afternoon on the 1 December. Sadly, that day a lot of the families stayed at home having been hit by the many bugs that were doing the rounds, but we still had a lovely time with glitter going everywhere and lots of themed activities and food. As a treat the children also enjoyed a trip to the village pantomime with a wee party afterwards.

The children worked hard on their Nativity in December. On the 15th, 25 children dressed up as the traditional characters and told the story we know so well. They all did so well, standing where asked and speaking clearly so all could hear. Thankfully the stable didn't fall down and the angels didn't fall out of the pulpit. Thanks to all concerned, we can relax until next year.

This coming term the children, having enjoyed 'exploring' last term, are now looking at 'journeys'. We will concentrate on stories in the Bible that describe journeys, as well as continuing to think about our contacts in other countries. In February we look forward to sharing JAM Breakfast on the 16th and in the Family Communion on 23 February. Our Easter Craft Afternoon will be on the 29 March.

Sunday Club is for children aged 3yrs upwards, held in the Church Centre, during the 9.45am service. The creche is available in the vestry for under 3yr olds

The Gullane Guild

Members are looking forward to the meetings in the new year. At the same time we were feeling sad to have to say farewell to Janet Anderson, who has contributed so much to our Guild sessions. We would like to thank her for her musical and practical contributions and wish her well, hoping that she will find fulfilment in anything she gives her talents to.

Our Christmas party was very much enjoyed by all. There was a slight panic when Irene Hogg, the pianist I had booked, had to call off on the morning of the party with a terrible cold. Luckily, my friend Marion Devlin, organist at Longniddry, could step in at the last minute and we had an enjoyable time with her, singing favourite Carols and Christmas songs and enjoying a lovely tea.

On 20 January we were all spellbound listening to Eve Baxter, a storyteller from Northern Ireland, who told about the life of Susannah Wesley. Eve spoke for an hour, without a note and you could hear a pin drop. We learned about Susannah, who gave birth to 19 children, not all surviving to adulthood. She was called "The Mother of Methodism" being very influential at the starting up of the Methodist Church. Her sons became the famous poet Charles and hymn writer John Wesley.

On February 3, we look forward to lunch at Craighielaw Golf Club, always very enjoyable. We hope to welcome everyone to that occasion. It is good to look at the lovely view over the Firth of Forth and enjoy each others' company.

On February 17 our speaker will be Viv Dickenson, CEO of Crossreach, Social Care Council of the Church of Scotland, one of the causes we support financially. This committee goes back a long way: last year celebrating 150 years.

Our annual Coffee Morning and only fundraiser will be on March 7, when we hope to see a large crowd enjoying the delicious Guild baking and be generous with their donations.

Christmas Gifts 2019

Warm thanks have been received from Home Start East Lothian who gather gifts for children at Christmas time. This year it was able to distribute gifts to 694 children.

Equally, there has been grateful acknowledgement of the donations to Bethany Care Shelter and Muirfield Riding Therapy, each of whom was sent a cheque for £335.10 being a half share of the Christmas collections.

East Lothian Foodbank

December in the Foodbank was a record-breaking month. Whether that's a good thing or not is up for debate but as always, the staff and volunteers worked hard to deliver in more ways than one.

Thankfully we had a huge amount of food coming in, a lot is still to be sorted into categories, a lot was Christmas food for Jingle bags, none of it will go to waste. The December Tesco collection brought in 5,731.6kgs of food. We also received more than 11,500 kgs of food from our regular collection points and public donations.

Considering the average number of parcels given out, per month, between Oct '18 - Oct '19, was 217. The fact that in the 3 weeks we were open in December, we gave out 327 food parcels, shows how busy we were. On top of that we gave out approximately 462 Jingle bags! Each parcel/bag given out was packed and delivered by a volunteer; didn't we do well. Some of the above figures are approximations, figures may now have been adjusted.

As a result of the increased need and changing role of the Foodbank, some structural changes in the day to day running of the organisation are afoot. We will find out more at the AGM on the 29 January.

World Day of Prayer Service

On 6 March 2020 at 3.00pm we will be joined by the members of the congregations from Gladsmuir Parish Church, Gullane Parish Church, Longniddry Parish Church and St Adrian's Episcopal Church, Gullane for the annual World Day of Prayer Service. This year it is Aberlady Parish Church's turn to host this Service. Please do come along. You are all welcome.

V E Day – Friday 8 May 2020

This has been designated as a bank holiday by HM Government to enable as many people as possible to join in the celebrations over the V E 75 weekend 8 -10 May 2020.

With this in mind, and in association with the Central Council of Church Bells Ringers, Churches and Cathedrals are being encouraged to take part by ringing their bells at 7.00pm on 8 May in a collective celebration of peace that evening.

Aberlady Parish Church will be taking part in this event.

A beautiful gift to Aberlady Congregation

Gilbert Wallace joined our congregation some time ago and he has been generous in sharing with us the fruit of his skills as an artist. Most recently, Gil made and donated to us a stunning salver which is pictured here on the south east aisle window where it is alongside an earlier gift of a stained-glass cross in the Celtic design. Heartfelt thanks to Gil for his generosity and to Susan Struthers who has made a beautiful felt bag in which to safely store the salver when it is not in use.

COMMUNITY LINKS

Gullane Day Centre

Our Day Centre continues to be a very busy and happy place for our members.

We now open on Fridays, which makes five days a week and means there are only two days that our members need to be at home.

Our staff and volunteers work very hard to make these comfortable and fun days for everyone, including very nourishing meals and making sure they are transported safely from their homes and back. Many friendships are made and you can always hear laughter around the centre.

As always, we would welcome any volunteers who could spend a few hours a month to join our happy team. Please call in and see our manager, Margaret Mack.

Community Choir : Update

Happy New Year to you all. Following a very successful winter term, our Community Choir has now returned back to regular Tuesday night practices at Gullane Church Centre. Last year, as well as having great fun learning new challenging pieces and revisiting some familiar ones, we were able to share our music with both the Church and wider community.

We were delighted to support the Edinburgh Children's Hospital Charity in December by carol singing at the Dome, Edinburgh. Although the weather was against us as it rained heavily throughout, we all thoroughly enjoyed it and managed to collect an impressive £266.63 for the charity. We did look like drowned rats by the end and one of the biggest casualties was, unfortunately, our music. It required some gentle drying at home with some even taking to ironing to get the main creases out!

All this was good practice for Lessons and Carols at Gullane, which was, as ever, a wonderful service and we were most grateful to be given the opportunity to support and contribute to this service.

Now that we are in a new year (and even new decade), we have taken the decision to change the name of the community choir. Our chosen name is Chorus Con Spirito. This new name was selected to reflect our roots (the Church and Community). Con Spirito is a musical term meaning "with spirit, life, vitality, soul". Spirito also holds the Holy Spirit present at heart and in our music-making, reflecting our Church roots; and in addition Spirito reflects our Community spirit, the mindset/intention to bring joy, love, peace and hope to those here in our own communities, and also to other communities where people are less fortunate.

With this new name we are embracing a very new exciting challenge for the new year. We will be learning new pieces for a concert to be held at St Mary's Church, Haddington on Saturday 25 April this year where we will be supporting Spatz and Co Showband - a professional 9 piece showband. We will be embracing some different musical styles with a programme full of uplifting fun, lively music focusing on pop, jazz and gospel. This event is in support of the Jess Mackie Fund for provision of Music Therapy at Edinburgh Children's Hospital.

Over the last few years we have been building a good repertoire of music and in addition to the St Mary's fundraiser hope to arrange another fund raising concert more local to our community later in the year.

Game On Club

If you enjoy playing games, why not go along to the new Game On Club to be held in Gullane Library – could be Bridge, Scrabble, Dominoes, Canasta, Cribbage... (or bring along your own game), perhaps even a jigsaw – and enjoy the company.

Dates and times still to be confirmed.

Contact staff at Library for further details (01620 820645)

Gullane Bowling Club

2019 was a significant year in the long history of Gullane Bowling Club. The people of Gullane and beyond supported a drive to secure a future for the Club. We were amazed and extremely grateful for the support – financial and otherwise – which enabled us to do so much to the Clubhouse and green. We are delighted that the Clubhouse is now a year-round facility available to the community for a range of events which so far includes an Autumn Fare, bridge and bingo clubs and the polling station at the recent General Election.

As we start 2020, we look forward to welcoming returning and new members of all ages to the Club to enjoy competitive and fun events in a relaxed and friendly setting. As our village population grows, we hope to maintain the momentum of 2019 and develop further the contribution we, as a Club, can make to secure a vibrant future at the heart of the community.

For all enquiries about full, family or social membership or use of the Clubhouse, please contact:

'Kindred Spirits'
Group exhibition of paintings and sculptures

22 February – 1 April 2020: daily 10am – 4pm.

This exhibition, focusing on African wildlife, brings together work by Carol Barrett, Graham Catlow and Frances Richardson alongside sculptures by Carol Read and Richard Ballantyne. The title, 'Kindred Spirits', refers to the strong bond that the artists feel for the animals they depict. As Carol Barrett puts it "Over my thirty years of sketching in the bush, I have experienced a remarkable spiritual connection with the wild animals I draw, in particular elephants". All three painters are also connected with Edinburgh Zoo, either as former artists in residence or former members of staff.

The work on show encompasses watercolour paintings, pastels, lithographs, and ceramics sculptures and aims to convey the awe felt by the artists for majestic animals facing great environmental pressures.

Carol Barret has been a professional wildlife artist for over 30 years. She lives in Edinburgh and regularly travels to Africa to study and sketch wildlife. She is a committed conservationist. Graham Catlow, is a self-taught artist, whose artistic inspiration stems from caring for animals in particular during a long career at Edinburgh Zoo. Frances Richardson lives in East Lothian where she also draws inspiration from the life on local farms. The work in this exhibition was produced on recent trips to Kenya. Carol Read and Richard Ballantyne collaborate to create ceramic sculptures inspired by wildlife and made using the Raku technique.

Gullane Community Children's Hub

As some of you may recall from last year, Gullane Playgroup and Gullane After School Club merged together to form the Gullane Community Children's Hub in August 2019. Since then, we have been working hard to set up new joint working practices and have had a hugely successful first few months.

The organisation is based in the Old Primary School, behind the library. We are open from 7:15am until 6pm every day with over 120 children registered to use the services from the ages of 2 to 12 years.

A typical day starts with Breakfast Club from 7:15am where children are offered a healthy breakfast including hot porridge and a chance to play with friends. These children are then accompanied across the fields to school or nursery at 8:30am. At 9am our pre-school children arrive for the traditional playgroup, where 2-4 year olds get a chance to play, craft, read stories and run around in our exciting garden. Some of these children then go home at 11:30am, leaving up to 10 who attend our lunch club. These children share a packed lunch together, sitting down with the staff before being joined by the older pre-school 3 and 4 year olds who are picked up from Gullane Nursery. Afternoon playgroup continues until 2:30pm with lots of free play, dictated entirely by what the children want to do each day.

With the pre-school children all collected by 2:30pm, 2:45pm heralds the arrival of our Gullane Primary P1 and P2 After School Club children. They are then joined by their peers from Dirleton School, followed by the P3 - P7 Gullane and Dirleton children. After a healthy snack, there are a variety of activities on offer each day including crafting, constructing, den building and free play indoor and outdoor.

Children are then picked up by 6pm, clearing the way for hiring out the hall for evening activities including children's Taekwondo on a Wednesday and adult Pilates on a Tuesday. Friday morning also sees the building turned over to the Gullane Baby and Toddler group, welcoming new parents and carers to the building for a well deserved cup of tea, snack for the children and much needed opportunity to meet and chat with other local parents and carers. Weekends are quiet at the moment, however, this year will see the re-establishment of children' parties in the building/garden, and hopefully activity mornings/afternoons to share our resources across the community.

We are very lucky to have had the wonderful support of several members of the Gullane Parish Church congregation in this venture, including Sarah Gibson as Secretary, Joe McGrane who has independently verified our accounts and supported our recent merger, Rachel Wallace who is now officially registered as Bank Staff, helping out to cover staff absences and Rachel's husband, Mike, who has setup and maintains our brand new website and IT systems. We hope to encourage more community support over the coming year.

Ways to get involved include running a simple darning workshop (a request from a child whose holey tights need darned!), sports coaching e.g. golf, bowls and nature walks and joining our bank staff to provide occasional cover for staff absences. We are also on the lookout for new committee members from the community with specific expertise in childcare, HR and accounting. Finally, we are about to begin a programme of renovating the building including new toilets, kitchen and heating system (which hasn't been touched for at least 40 years!). To fund this, we need to raise £8,000 for new toilets in the next 6 months and hope to launch a capital appeal for the remaining renovations later in the year.

If you, or anyone you know, might be able to help out in any way, please do get in touch This is a true community resource, which cannot survive without the support of the community. We have an amazing set of staff, parents and children and it is an absolute pleasure to be part of. If you would like to help out in any way, please contact me, Hilary Smyth, at BusinessManager@GullaneCCHub.org or phone us on 01620 844 609. The Church of Scotland's Society, Religion and Technology (SRT) project

The SRT Project was set up in 1970 to examine the implications of new and emerging technologies. This year marks its 50th anniversary.

Since its start it has covered a wide variety of mind-boggling topics, from stem cells to synthetic biology, and from economics to environmental issues.

It aims to bring a Christian ethical understanding to issues which are often controversial, working alongside congregations and presbyteries throughout the Church of Scotland.

Dr Murdo Macdonald, policy officer for the SRT project says:
"The SRT project began life as an initiative of the Department of Industrial Mission of the Church. It was clear that technology was going to have a profound effect on communities all over Scotland, and it was felt that it was important that the Church's voice was there to speak up for those likely to be most affected, but also least likely to be able to speak for themselves.

"Whether or not you have an interest in technology, the fact is that it's all around us, and changes the way we do things, the way we see things, the ways in which we relate to each other. Part of the work of the SRT team is to discern what may be of interest to society in the future, and to help the Church to start thinking theologically about the issues new technologies present and what they might mean for God's creation.

In recent years, the project has brought many key societal issues to the fore at the General Assembly, including:

- Energy Issues and Fuel Poverty 2016
- Organ and Tissue Donation: opting in or presumed consent? 2015
- Sustainable Agriculture: How do we reconnect with where our food comes from? 2012
- Suicide among young men: How should the church respond? 2011
- Ethics and the Internet: How has the Internet changed the way we interact? 2011

Their current research focuses include: health and social care, mental health, community-based elderly care, isolation and loneliness, alcohol and substance abuse, and artificial intelligence.

2020 will see the launch of a new booklet, taking part in science and technology events, and writing a monthly column in the Life and Work magazine, the first of which appears in the January issue.

They will also be launching their new Twitter account where they will be posting everything from events and news to fun scientific facts. You can follow them at @SRTScotland

There will be several celebratory events, including an invitation to take part in Greyfriars Kirk's Festival of Science and Religion, part of the church's 400th anniversary celebrations. To find out more about what's on throughout the year you can consult the SRT pages of the Church of Scotland website.
